Example: Today's Carrot A Day: One-Minute Recognition

Here's your first idea. And all it takes is 60 seconds. Try this today, the minute you see an employee doing something right. Don't hesitate. Just:

- Tell them exactly what they did right.
(‘Julie, I notice that you picked up the phones today, since Sandra was sick.’)
- Tell them what value or goal they met.
(‘That shows a lot of teamwork, and that is one of our core goals around here.’)
- Explain how that impacts the company.
(‘We might have missed that emergency call from our biggest customer without your help.’)
- Express appreciation.
(‘Thanks so much.’)

Voila! In less time than it takes to stir your morning coffee, you've recognized someone with specific praise. Now, how easy is that?
